Home Group Questions and Discussion

September 16, 2012

1. Have you ever followed your heart, only to realize later that you made the wrong decision (i.e. entered a relationship, purchased a car, etc.)? How were you deceived by what your "heart" wanted?
2. Read Jeremiah 17:7-10. How does verse 9 go against everything culture teaches us? What standard does culture compare to, versus what standard Christians should compare to? How should this change the way you think when your "heart" is telling you something?
3. Read Ecclesiastes 7:20 and Ephesians 3:10. How does this show us even more that many are "deceived" into thinking they are a "good person"? Is there a such thing as a "good person"? Why or why not? How would you explain that to someone who doesn't yet believe in God based on these verses?
4. Read Ezekiel 36:26 and 2 Corinthians 5:17. What is similar about these two verses? What message of hope does this give in how the deception of our cheating hearts can be dealt with?
5. Based on these verses, how can the group pray for each other? What is going to be your biggest hang-up in surrendering to this teaching? Be honest! Then pray that God replaces that with a brand new heart!
